Lunatics

Dave Barry and Alan Zweibel

Philip Horkman is a happy man, the owner of a pet store called The Wine Shop, and on Sundays a referee for kids' soccer. Jeffrey Peckerman is the sole sane person in a world filled with jerks and morons, and he's having a really bad day. The two of them are about to collide in a swiftly escalating series of events that will send them running for their lives, pursued by the police, soldiers, terrorists, subversives, bears, and a man dressed as Chuck E. Cheese.

What's on your bookshelf?

Richard H. Burton,

David B. Falk Professor of Sport Management

Q: What are you currently reading for pleasure?

A: Judy Nunn's Territory (publisher is Arrow). It's about Australia's top end, the area near Darwin.

Q: What appealed to you about this book?

A: I'm working on my second novel and this material may inform some of my research. My first book, The Darkest Mission, came out in May and is available at the Syracuse University Bookstore.

Q: What is next on your "want to read" list?

A: Color Him Orange: The Jim Boeheim Story by Scott Pitoniak. Scott and I are working on a screenplay together and I think he is a brilliant writer.
